

Miloš Arsić, PhD

Research title: Senior Associate

Position: Director

Affiliation: Veterinary Specialized Institute "Niš" – Niš, Serbia

Occupation field: Food Hygiene and Technology

Short biography: Milos Arsić graduated from the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine in Belgrade. He has been employed at the Veterinary Specialized Institute "Nis" since 2015, holding the position of Senior Research Associate for food and animal microbiology, and actively participating in food safety and quality testing. Since 2017, he has been involved as a collaborator in the Quality Management System, responsible for developing and implementing equipment calibration and interlaboratory comparison programs. He completed his specialization in food microbiology in 2016. As of the beginning of 2023, he assumed the position of Director at the Veterinary Specialized Institute "Nis." In 2023, he earned his doctorate from the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine in Belgrade. He has published several scientific papers in international journals and conferences of national significance. His area of interest revolves around food safety and foodborne bacterial diseases, with a particular focus on the detection of Yersinia enterocolitica in the pig meat production chain.