

Velibor Andrić, PhD

Research title: Senior Research Associate

Position: Technical Manager of the Accredited Laboratory

Affiliation: Vinca Institute of Nuclear Sciences, University of Belgrade, National Institute of the Republic of Serbia, Chemical Dynamics Department – Belgrade, Serbia

Occupation field: Spectrometric instrumental techniques, radioecology, chemometry

Short biography: Research field encompass radioecological aspects of the environmental sciences, methods for the detection of the radioactive contamination and presence of the natural occurring radionuclides in the food/feed chain, environmental and industry. Together with the science activities, work in the field of the quality control in the laboratories on the positions of the quality manager and assessor for the national accreditation bodies is also an important part of the career which is accomplished at the University of Belgrade, both in the Faculty of the veterinary medicine as well as in the VINČA Institute. International cooperation is achieved in the realization of the 6 projects funded by the International Atomic Energy Agency as a national coordinator and active participant. Other research activities include development and application of portable non-destructive analytical techniques for the study of cultural heritage objects with numerous realized projects of examination of artistic paintings, icons, frescoes and other artifacts.